PLAIT MATE

The fashion world can't get enough of plait and wicker ensembles. At Alexander Wang and Mia Mia, models sported long, chunky deconstructed side plait while at Oscar de la Renta models wore 6 retro-style braids wrapped around their heads. For a feminine bridal twist, add paper flowers or fresh daisies — but keep an eye on them as they'll wilt before the day is done. Less-is-more makeup rules: natural style, but don't go too basic so it's not a light foundation for that photo-ready finish.

Here's what will keep in flower condition: go with an application. Lisa Erdman, The Hair Bureau, Slip girl, Hair by Lisa Erdman.

CROWNING GLORY

Never knowingly underdressed, we summed up the hairdos on the spring summer catwalks. Give a twist for black cherry headbands. Anna Sui chose long hairdos with the jarring epitome of flowers and Sofia Polizzi brought a modern headband with a cashmere card. Give it a twist with a twist of fabric flowers, topped with a pearl or a tassel. Team with English inspiration: find a dewy skin, delicate pink blush and a rose-oxide lip finish with a hint of white shadow.
